10. Upon the second gendarme's arrival, plaintiff was re-cuffed for an extended period of time,and later informed that he was facing felony murder charges for the car incident and an additional felony firearm possession charge. plaintiff protested to no acknowledgement from the Valeskan gendarme.
11. Valeskan gendarme sentenced plaintiff to 360 seconds, citing Valeskan penal code 2.1 and 3.2.
12. In prison, plaintiff took up mining to hasten his release, extracting resources commensurate to 50-80 seconds of his sentence.
13. Plaintiff was repeatedly attacked by another inmate during his time in prison, suffering multiple wounds in prison inflicted by pick ax, resulting in massive hemorrhaging and his eventual death.
14. By reason of the facts and circumstances stated above, defendant has violated the Second and Fourth amendments of the Kham Constitution and enacted the unlawful imprisonment of plaintiff.
15. By reason of the facts and circumstances stated above, plaintiff has suffered financial damages through the destruction of property and denial of potential earnings, in addition to humiliation and physical, mental, and emotional damages suffered during his unlawful imprisonment.
